FU, Wei

Professional Experience

Ms. Fu has over 10 years of experience in cross-border securities. Prior to joining JunHe, she worked at Baker McKenzie's Beijing office and its domestic joint operation platform, FenXun Partners. Based in Beijing, Ms. Fu has experience in mainland Chinese companies' listings in Hong Kong and post-listing continuing compliance. She has provided securities compliance legal services to multiple A+H central state-owned enterprises and Hong Kong Main Board-listed companies and is familiar with the internal governance characteristics and the regulatory environment of mainland Chinese enterprises. Ms. Fu is well-versed in the HKEX Listing Rules and handles practical issues arising from the overlay of dual-jurisdiction regulatory regimes.

Ms. Fu's practice covers H shares, GDR issuance and listings, corporate governance and ongoing compliance advisory services for Hong Kong-listed companies. She has provided ongoing legal services and HKEX compliance to multiple A+H and Hong Kong Main Board-listed companies. Ms. Fu handles securities legal matters including continuing disclosures, corporate governance and daily compliance, and she has accumulated vast experience in routine compliance services for listed companies. In terms of transactional work, Ms. Fu has participated in Hong Kong Main Board listing projects in industries such as property management and building materials. She has provided Hong Kong securities compliance support for STAR Market (Science and Technology Innovation Board) listing projects in industries such as biopharmaceuticals and equipment manufacturing. Leveraging her practice experience in the Beijing office, Ms. Fu combines the needs of mainland Chinese enterprises to assist clients in handling compliance matters under the regulatory regimes of both mainland China and Hong Kong.
