Banking and Finance

With the deepening of global economic integration, a considerable number of the international financial institutions and multinational corporations entering China have sought innovative and strategic legal services from JunHe. Additionally, JunHe has worked with many Chinese and foreign-funded financial institutions to assist them in becoming more compatible with internationally accepted practice, while staying compliant with current PRC laws. JunHe takes advantage of the international background and local practice experience of its professionals to continue to innovate within the framework of the existing PRC laws and to meet the various business needs of their clients.

Our Team

The lawyers in JunHe's finance team have all graduated from the famous law schools in China and the world and have solid legal expertise as well as practical experience in various prestigious law firms. They have been at the forefront of the market and have been involved in a number of landmark transactions in the banking and finance sector in China, and are thus able to solve structural issues in an innovative manner. They have provided services for all kinds of financial institutions in China for many years. Meanwhile, due to the fact that the lawyers in our finance team have vast experience in providing services for various international clients, they know best the international finance practice and the needs of our international clients. This enables them to be a bridge of communication between any PRC and foreign party. Further, due to their frequent involvement in financial legislation and their permanent positive communication with various financial regulatory authorities and trade associations in China, they have the ability to construe and identify any change to finance laws and policies.

JunHe, founded in Beijing in 1989, is one of the first private partnership law firms in China. Since its establishment, JunHe has grown to be a large and recognized Chinese law firm. The firm has fifteen offices around the world and a team comprised of more than a thousand professionals.

JunHe is cost effective, responds very quickly and has good commercial awareness.
