In this context, one of the measures announced in Royal Decree-Law 8/2020 of March 17 is on urgent extraordinary measures to deal with the economic and social impact of COVID-19. The government also announced a line of bank guarantees (avales) by the State for financing granted by financial entities, for an amount of up to €100 billion. The first tranche of this line of bank guarantees, which will be managed by the Instituto de Crédito Oficial (“ICO”) and amounts to €20 billion, was approved by the Spanish Council of Ministers and authorized by the European Commission on March 24. Suspension of Deregulation Scheme: Royal Decree-law 8/2020, of March 17, introduced a new Art. 7 bis in the Capital Movements and Financial Transactions with Foreign Countries Act 19/2003 of July 4, modifying in certain cases the model for screening foreign investments, changing in such cases the current general system of deregulation by requiring express ex ante authorization to carry out such investments.	Prohibition of Dismissal: Royal Decree 9/2020 was adopted as of March 27, by which complementary measures are adopted, in the labour field to mitigate the effects derived from COVID-19. This new Royal Decree-law outlines, corrects and adds new provisions in the framework of the health alert. The main resolution is the "prohibition" of dismissals for reasons linked to force majeure and/or for economic, productive, organizational or technical reasons linked to COVID-19. Non-Essential Employee Benefits: Royal Decree-Law 10/2020, of March 29, the non-essential employees to whom this rule is applicable enjoy a recoverable paid leave, mandatory, between March 30 and April 9, 2020, inclusive. Royal Decree-law 9/2020, of 27 March, adopted supplementary measures that correct and add new employment provisions in the context of the health emergency.	Lockdown Lifted: The Spanish Government plan issued on April 28th to de-escalate the measures taken as a consequence of the COVID-19 outbreak is structured in 4 phases with a duration of 2 weeks per phase. The de-escalation will be carried out based on the control of the pandemic in each province and islands and at the speed allowed by the health situation in that area, in accordance with objective criteria. The process will not be uniform, but asymmetric and with different speeds. The state of alarm is extended until May 24. Corporate Meetings: It is allowed for unlisted companies to hold online and phone general meetings and board meetings.	Medical Masks: Resolution of March 20, 2020, from the General Secretariat for Industry and Small and Medium-sized Enterprises ("BOE" No. 77, March 20, 2020), supports alternative specifications to EPI masks with marking European CE. Consequently, and exceptionally, the commercialization of masks without CE marking is accepted, but that meets the conditions set forth in the aforementioned resolution. Hydroxychloroquine and Chloroquine Phosphate: The Spanish Agency for Medicines and Health Products (AEMPS) controls the distribution of hydroxychloroquine and chloroquine phosphate for COVID-19 in the Hospitals in order to control its stock in the face of the growing demand to treat the disease of COVID-19. Manufacturing: Order SND / 326/2020, of April 6, establishes special measures for the granting of licenses to operate facilities and for the	http://www.mscbs.gob.es/en https://www.ga-p.com/en/publications/analysis-of-the-state-aid-approved-by-the-spanish-autonomous-communities-to-try-to-mitigate-the-impact-of-covid-19/ https://www.ga-p.com/en/publications/covid-19-y-efectos-contractuales-2/

This enables the SSO to pay partial wages to employees forced to stop working temporarily between March 1 and August 31, 2020, and who do not receive wages from the employer during the temporary cessation. However, this measure does not grant employers blanket discretion to cease operations without paying wages, temporarily or permanently; actual requirements must be determined on a case-by-case basis. According to current labor law, employers who decide to temporarily cease operations must pay 75% wages. As for unavoidable layoffs, they must follow the standard timing and remuneration requirements for Thailand.	Public Gatherings: Public gatherings are banned under the Emergency Decree, which has been extended to May 31 and may be renewed if deemed necessary. Interprovincial travel is restricted, and curfew measures are in effect nationwide. A minimal lifting of certain measures, such as the opening of limited categories of business, began in the first week of May, and is expected to gradually increase throughout the month. Travel Restrictions: All incoming commercial flights are banned through May 31, 2020, and land borders are closed or severely restricted. Foreign nationals are not allowed into the country (other than a few very limited exceptions), and Thai citizens overseas may only enter the country if they have a medical certificate confirming fitness issued within the previous 72 hours. Below is a summary of certain economic measures taken that benefit corporations: Trade Facilities: The CARES Act expands State Trade Expansion Program (STEP) subsidies to states to assist small businesses in their export sales and sales in their states. Loan Facilities: The CARES Act sets aside $454 billion for programs and facilities established by the Federal Reserve for businesses that have not otherwise received adequate relief through the CARES Act as well as for states and municipalities and will be administered through the U.S. Treasury’s Exchange Fund. Financial Stimulus: The CARES Act provides for “stimulus payments” to certain U.S. citizen and resident individuals in 2020 equal to: $1,200 ($2,400 if married filing jointly), plus $500 per dependent child. The rebate is reduced gradually for persons with adjusted gross income in excess of $75,000 (single), $112,500 (head of household), or $150,000 (married filing jointly).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Requiring employer-sponsored group health plans to cover certain COVID-19 testing and related health care visits at 100% with no deductibles, coinsurance, or copays and no prior authorization, utilization review, or medical management; • Encouraging the use of telehealth services by permitting High Deductible Health Plans to provide pre-deductible coverage for telehealth and other remote care services without disqualifying the Plan for Health Savings Account eligibility purposes; • Expanding medical expenses reimbursable under Healthcare Flexible Spending Accounts, Health Savings Accounts and Health Reimbursement Accounts to include over-the-counter drugs without a prescription and menstrual care products; • Enhancing the ability of participants in employer-sponsored retirement plans to access their assets; • Providing relief to certain retirees that otherwise would be required to take distributions from retirement plans in a down market; 	Many of these orders will expire on or before April 30, 2020. As many of the stay-at-home orders expire, state governors are announcing various plans to gradually reopen businesses in the states, including specifying when and how retail establishments, restaurants, construction, and salons/barbershops may open. Governors are either revising the current stay-at-home orders and extending them or replacing the orders with new guidelines. Particularly, Alaska, Colorado, Georgia, Idaho, Iowa, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee and Texas have announced significant steps towards reopening businesses. Business Closures: While each state has issued unique local executive orders on what “essential businesses” are allowed to remain open, on March 28, 2020, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security’s Cyber Infrastructure Security Agency issued guidance on what essential and critical infrastructure means. The memorandum includes an advisory list of essential critical infrastructure sectors, workers, and functions that should continue during the COVID-19 response	Agency issued a temporary final rule (“Rule”) to establish export restrictions on certain types of personal protective equipment products (“PPE”) used in the response to the COVID-19 pandemic: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • N-95 Filtering Facepiece Respirators; • Other Filtering Facepiece Respirators; • Elastomeric, air-purifying respirators and appropriate particulate filters/cartridges; • PPE surgical masks; and • PPE gloves or surgical gloves. All covered PPE shipments will be temporarily detained by U.S. Customs and Border Patrol until FEMA makes a final determination of whether it will revert the materials for domestic use, issue a rated order, or allow the export. 	Loan Guarantees: The CARES Act also provides $350 billion in available funds to guarantee loans made to certain small businesses with fewer than 500 employees, hotels/motels, restaurants and service franchises with 500 or fewer employees at each physical location, sole proprietors, independent contractors, and nonprofit entities (501(c)(3) nonprofits, 501(c)(9) veteran’s organizations, Tribal businesses). Payroll Tax Deferrals and Employee Retention Credits: The CARES Act provides a quarterly refundable payroll tax credit equal to 50% of qualified wages paid to employees during the COVID-19 crisis by employers that were carrying on a trade or business in 2020, where the employer’s (1) operations were fully or partially suspended due to a COVID-19-related shutdown order or (2) gross receipts declined by more than 50% when compared to the same quarter in the previous year. The credit is provided for the first $10,000 in compensation (i.e., up to a $5,000 tax credit), including health benefits, paid to an eligible employee, and is provided for wages paid or incurred after March 12,	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Providing temporary funding relief for single-employer defined benefit pension plans; and • Providing fiduciary and plan participant relief during the period beginning March 1, 2020 and ending 60 days after the announced end of the COVID-19 National Emergency, including (i) plan fiduciary relief from certain disclosure and administrative obligations, and (ii) tolling various otherwise applicable deadlines imposed on plan participants to exercise plan enrollment rights, medical plan continuation rights (also known as COBRA rights), and filing and appealing claims for benefits. Paid/Unpaid Leaves: The Families First Corona Response Act was passed by the Federal government. Employers with fewer than 500 employees must provide Paid Sick Leave for 14 days for COVID 19 related absences, and unpaid leave under the EFMLA for COVID-19 related reasons. Payroll Protection Measures: The federal government implemented the Payroll Protection Program which	across all jurisdictions. The list identifies workers who are typically essential to continued critical infrastructure viability and support crucial supply chains and enable functions for critical infrastructure. The following industries are included: medical and healthcare, telecommunications, information technology systems, defense, food and agriculture, transportation and logistics, energy, water and wastewater, law enforcement, and public works. Many local state executive orders cite to this guidance to defined essential and critical businesses. Travel Restrictions: On March 31, 2020, the U.S. Department of State issued a global level 4 health advisory urging U.S. citizens to avoid all international travel due to the global impact of COVID-19. In countries where commercial departure options remain available, U.S. citizens who live in the United States should arrange for immediate return to the United States, unless they are prepared to remain abroad for an indefinite period. Starting with late December 2019, President Trump issued several	certain types of intercompany transfers and exports to Canada or Mexico.
