Government Enforcement & Investigations

JunHe's government enforcement and investigation team is an excellent legal service team in China in the areas of Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) and anti-bribery, cross-border compliance investigation and white-collar crime. The legal issues relating to government enforcement and investigation are often complex, may involve contact with numerous government departments and face strong regulatory enforcement. In this field, our clients can face great hazards with potentially long-lasting impact. Our team has years of successful experience and legal practice. We properly address the regulatory issues often encountered by our clients and assist in preventing and reducing any legal, commercial or public opinion risks. In this way, we help our clients to conduct business in compliance with the law and maintain their strong business reputation.

JunHe has an experienced team of lawyers with diverse professional and international backgrounds in the field of government enforcement and investigation. Partners and associates in the team include prosecutors, criminal lawyers and dispute resolution lawyers with experience in litigation and investigation. Our extensive experience and expertise in responding to government regulatory measures, as well as anti-corruption and anti-bribery compliance, white-collar crime and cross-border compliance investigations allow us to provide clients with a full range of cutting-edge legal services regarding laws across multiple jurisdictions. We provide customized advice and practical solutions in compliance, to satisfy our clients' complex legal and business needs.

JunHe, founded in Beijing in 1989, is one of the first private partnership law firms in China. Since its establishment, JunHe has grown to be a large and recognized Chinese law firm. The firm has fifteen offices around the world and a team comprised of more than a thousand professionals.

We have gained the trust and respect of our clients and served them in a wide range of high-profile cases. Our partners have a deep understanding of legal practices and excellent skills in handling complex cases. They have won many top awards in regulatory compliance and anti-corruption from Chambers, Business Law, LegalBand, The Legal 500 Asia Pacific, and other highly regarded legal media organisations.

Their (JunHe) comprehensive, detailed and practical advice is always tailored to specific needs and concerns.
