Professional Experience

Ms. Liu has been practicing in our Shanghai office since 2011. She has expertise in the film, media and entertainment industries, and has abundant experience in dispute resolution matters with regards to reputation, image, IP rights authorization (including anti-unjust competition), film and TV investment, artist management and brokerage and advertising.

Ms. Liu has worked in a number of litigation and arbitration cases with widespread social influence, including a dispute regarding rights with the highest amount ever in China. She worked on a dispute involving the broadcasting rights of La Liga BBVA (Spanish Premier League) and the Chinese Super League, as well as a series of contractual disputes between film/TV stars and sports stars, and their representative brands and brokerage companies. Ms. Liu provides her clients with solutions for dispute resolution and represents them in litigation and arbitration. Some of her renowned clients include Disney, Tencent, Mango TV, SMG Pictures, Fundamental Films, Oriental Pearl, MiGu TV, Shanghai Film Group, Dentsu Aegis and China Business Network.

Ms. Liu also specializes in complex dispute resolution matters in fields of equity and corporate controlling power, corporate governance, cross-border enforcement of arbitral awards and cross-border marriages.

In 2019, Ms. Liu was nominated for the 'Rising Star in Dispute Resolution' award by Euromoney Legal Media Group, being one of the five female nominees in Asia and the only one nominated in mainland China.
