Seattle Office

JunHe, founded in Beijing in 1989, is one of the first private partnership law firms in China. Since its establishment, JunHe has grown to be a large and recognized Chinese law firm. The firm has fifteen offices around the world and a team comprised of more than a thousand professionals.

JunHe's Seattle office is the latest addition of our China law expertise in the US. It is also an important complement, especially on the West Coast, to our 30 years of bilingual/bicultural legal service in America, on both US and Chinese legal matters, and to our existing and prospective Asia-Pacific based clients doing business in the US.

China Law

Our Seattle office serves as a China law hotline to our US clients. It has direct access to the wealth of knowledge and experience built for decades, by thousands of our seasoned lawyers and alums, trained by the best law schools and law firms in both in China and in the US or in other countries or regions with established and modern judicial systems. We have 34 practice groups and 13 offices with more than 1000 lawyers specialized in different sets of law. Our resident partner has practiced Chinese law for more than 30 years, covering a very wide range of terrain, from IPO to M&A, from debt financing to venture investments, representing many Fortune 500 companies and prominent Chinese businesses in complex and first-of-kind transactions. With JunHe's Seattle presence, our clients in the West Hemisphere can easily tap our resources, conveniently during their own working hours.

Cross-border Transactions

The greatest strength of our Seattle office is cross-border transactions, especially those between the US and China. Many JunHe's partners work on cross-border transactions on daily basis. Quite a few of us are also admitted to practice and have indeed practiced for significant amount of time, in one or more foreign jurisdiction(s). Our resident partner has more than 30 years of practice advising cross-border transactions, most of which involved both US and China laws elements. With significant life and working experience in the greater New York area, California and Shanghai, and experience of representing clients of different industries, corporate governance structures and growth stages from different
