Seattle Office

JunHe, founded in Beijing in 1989, is one of the first private partnership law firms in China. Since its establishment, JunHe has grown to be a large and recognized Chinese law firm. The firm has fifteen offices around the world and a team comprised of more than a thousand professionals.

With its strong bilingual and bicultural capabilities, JunHe's Seattle office provides comprehensive legal services for matters in cross-border commercial transactions between the U.S. and China.

Chinese Law

Our Seattle office offers comprehensive legal service on Chinese law and China-related matters for our U.S. clients. We have direct access to a wealth of knowledge and experience built over many decades by thousands of seasoned lawyers and alum. Our resident partner, Mr. Li, has practiced Chinese law for more than 30 years and has experience in IPOs, M&As, debt financing and venture investments. He has represented many Fortune 500 companies and prominent Chinese businesses in complex and first-of-a-kind transactions. Mr. Li has served as an expert witness on Chinese law in both federal and state litigations and has been named a market leader for decades by Chambers & Partners and other well-established legal publications. With JunHe's Seattle presence, our clients can conveniently and easily access our resources during their own working hours.

Cross-border Transactions

The greatest strength of our Seattle office is in cross-border transactions, especially those between the U.S. and China. Our resident partner has more than 30 years of experience in cross-border transactions, most of which involve legal elements of both the U.S. and China. He has significant work experience in New York, the Silicon Valley and Shanghai and has represented clients from different industries, with various corporate governance structures. He has worked with businesses from different regions through their various growth stages. With legal and business skills acquired in the top law schools and firms in the U.S. and China, he builds bridges between both countries.

JunHe has exclusive China membership with Lex Mundi and Multilaw, both of which are law firm alliances shared by selective member firms from states across the U.S. and in other jurisdictions. While maintaining long-term relationships with top law firms, we have built extensive connections with lawyers from different localities, specialties and bar associations in the U.S. They support us to execute cross-border transactions with confidence.

US Practice

We serve as an outside general counsel in the U.S. to many of our clients, handholding them with cost effective legal strategies. Working with our other offices, we help our clients in the following matters, especially for those between the US and China:

- Bankruptcy
- Capital markets
- CFIUS
- Commercial transactions
- Corporate
- Dispute resolution
- Intellectual property
- Mergers and acquisitions
- Start-up and VC financing

We have an expansive network and can locate leading national and regional lawyers in most states in the U.S. with a particular specialty or expertise. In collaboration with other firms, we provide support to our clients for the following matters:

- Data and privacy
- Employment and business visas
- Entertainment and sports
- Estate planning
- Export control
- Real estate
- State laws
