Professional Experience

Ms. Han Wang is based in JunHe's Shanghai office and has extensive experience in resolving civil and commercial disputes. She focuses on financial and securities dispute resolution, corporate governance and equity dispute resolution, investment dispute resolution, litigation arising from bankruptcy proceedings, criminal-civil crossover cases, and compliance investigations.

Ms. Wang has represented numerous trust companies, banks, and securities companies in dispute resolution cases with total claims exceeding RMB 10 billion. She secured a victory in the largest case ever heard by the Shanghai Financial Court in terms of the claim amount. This landmark case was listed in China Business Law Journal's "Deals of the Year 2021".

Ms. Wang has also represented numerous cases involving investment and financing, equity repurchase, and corporate management dispute resolutions, consistently achieving favorable results for her clients. She has represented complex matters on behalf of central enterprises, state-owned enterprises, and major local corporate groups and has provided legal consulting services and compliance investigations for domestic and international enterprises.

Renowned for her ability to manage intricate dispute resolution matters, Ms. Wang offers comprehensive legal services from pre-litigation preparation to enforcement. Her solutions are known for being both practical and tailored to the specific needs of her clients.
