Professional Experience

Ms. Zhang joined JunHe in January 2021. Previously, Ms. Zhang was partner in the Corporate Group of Reed Smith LLP.

Ms. Zhang has extensive experience in corporate affairs, especially in capital markets and she has represented issuers and underwriters in initial public offerings (IPOs), with clients including large Chinese companies and reputable investment banks. Ms. Zhang has acquired extensive experience and comprehensive understanding across many industries, including biotech, property management, TMT, finance, manufacturing, real estate, education, culture and tourism, consumer services and energy.

Ms. Zhang excels at providing clients with commercially valuable and strategic advice in complex transactions. In addition to IPO deals, she has also advised Chinese companies in their M&As, investments and private equity financing deals, as well as offshore corporate structuring. Several deals she has led have been recognized in annual transaction awards.

As one of the largest leading PRC law firms with an international reputation, JunHe constantly succeeds in attracting and retaining the most talented legal professionals from all over the world, offering them a platform where they can grow together with JunHe while developing their own careers. Our excellent platform and team advantages provide a broad space for the development of outstanding legal talents. In the current situation of diversified demand for legal services, we believed that Ms. Zhang will further strengthen JunHe's business in her relevant fields and enable JunHe to continue to provide professional and comprehensive legal services to their valued clients.
