Professional Experience

Mr. Zhou Quanli has extensive experience in bankruptcy reorganization and liquidation, trusts, non-performing asset (NPA) acquisition and disposal, and special opportunity investments. He has served as a bankruptcy administrator in many bankruptcy reorganization, bankruptcy liquidation and compulsory liquidation cases, and he has represented creditors, debtors and shareholders in bankruptcy and debt restructuring cases. These have been across diverse industries including listed companies, non-ferrous metals, real estate, chemical engineering, construction, machinery manufacturing, education and training.

Mr. Zhou gained experience in trusts, asset management, NPA acquisition and disposal, and investment and financing (particularly in structured financing) during his long tenure at a trust company prior to joining JunHe. He is a rare specialist in China with a background in bankruptcy practice and trust business and this unique combination enables him to provide solutions for complex projects and transactions by integrating legal, commercial and financial perspectives.
